

Positions Available – We are hiring

American Credit Counseling Institute (ACCI) is looking for qualified candidates for the following positions: Administrative Assistant, Office Clerk, and (3) one or more Housing Counselors. ACCI is a non-profit 501.C.3 organization that offers counseling, coaching, and education about credit, home purchasing, financial fitness, and mortgage delinquencies, problems and foreclosure.

Why would you like to work for American Credit Counseling Institute?

- ✚ ACCI is a non-profit organization that helps people to realize and hold on to the American Dream of owning a home.
- ✚ We offer flexible work hours, training, and the opportunity to help others.
- ✚ You can be paid or, if you prefer not to be paid, we also accept volunteers. We are looking for dedicated and responsible people who want to help our organization meet its mission.
- ✚ If you are a teacher, an accountant, any other professional, are retired, or simply love to help others, and want a part time job to increment your income, or want to volunteer part of your time, please contact us.
- ✚ We can also hire students. He or she can be a high school or college student who has some hours available during the day or after school. Again, he or she can be paid or volunteer a few hours a week.

To be considered for any of the positions above, please send an email to Soto_Mildred@Hotmail.com. Please indicate the position or positions that you want to be considered for.